EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

1. An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Mr. Derek Richmond on September 1, 2005.

2. The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 9, lines 7-8, delete "said treatment being compared with a predetermined ideal virtual treatment for said virtual condition" and insert therein --determining whether the condition of the teeth is satisfactory,--

Reasons for Allowance

3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The Amendment filed August 19, 2005 and the Examiner's Amendment above have overcome the rejection set forth in the Office action sent April 20, 2005.

While the cited reference of Chishti et al. (6,227,850) teaches a teeth viewing system used to create a plan for repositioning an orthodontic patient's teeth; and the cited reference of Fabricant (4,231,181) teaches a dental toy having tools for simulating teeth treatment; Chishti et al. and/or Fabricant, alone or in combination, does not anticipate or make obvious the applicant's claimed limitations of a computer game customized for a user in which the user performs one or more tasks generated by a computer within a virtual environment, wherein one or more tasks comprise at least one of choosing and carrying out a virtual treatment to a certain virtual condition associated with at least one teeth, and determining whether the condition of the teeth is satisfactory, further, said condition is a disorder in or lack of structural integrity of one or more teeth damage resulting from one or more infectious agents, and furthermore, said one or more tasks comprise elimination of said agents (as per claim 9), in combination with other presented limitations.

Claims 2-7 and 9-29, therefore, are allowable.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
